

CIRCUIT COURT
ELEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA

JOEL H. BROWN
CHIEF JUDGE

LAWSON E. THOMAS COURTHOUSE CENTER
175 N.W. FIRST AVENUE
MIAMI, FLORIDA 33128

April 23, 2010

Dear Fellow Bar Member:

Shortly, you shall receive your Florida Bar Annual Dues Statement and Pro Bono Reporting Form. If you have not already done so, I strongly encourage you to volunteer your time and resources with "Put Something Back," the Official Pro Bono Project of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit of Florida. "PSB" successfully provides innovative and effective methods of free legal services to thousands of indigent children, individuals, disabled, immigrants, families, elderly and non-profits each year.

Whether you accept cases, staff clinics or participate in one of our award winning programs, support from you and your colleagues is critical to help "PSB" continue to meet the escalating unmet legal needs of our community. All participants receive free CLE training, malpractice coverage, reduced or free costs, translators, mentors, research assistance and public recognition, plus personal satisfaction of "giving something back" to the less fortunate members of society.

In these difficult times, the demands of "PSB" clients greatly outweigh our present resources. We especially need Spanish and Creole attorneys for bankruptcy, consumer, family, foreclosure and probate cases. Thus, we ask you to dig a little deeper this year and do more than the minimum one case or 20 hours that is expected.

I urge you to act now by contacting Karen Josefsberg Ladis, Esq., Project Administrator, at (305)-579-5733 ext. 2247 or emailing psb@dadelegalaid.org. It's that simple.

Thank you for giving unselfishly of your time and talent to representing the poor. Together, we can achieve our goal of 100% participation by all 14,000 attorneys in Miami-Dade!

Sincerely yours,

Joel H. Brown
Chief Judge
