Dear Fellow Bar Member:

By now you may have received your Annual Florida Bar Dues Statement and Pro Bono Reporting Form. If you have not yet done so, I urge you and your firm to volunteer your time and resources with "Dade Legal Aid-Put Something Back," the Official Pro Bono Program of the Circuit and oldest provider of free civil legal aid to the poor in Miami-Dade County. If you are currently "putting something back" and handling pro bono cases, now is the time to increase your participation by accepting another pro bono matter from Dade Legal Aid-Put Something Back, which has decades of experience providing fulfilling opportunities to work on behalf of vulnerable children, foster teens, victims of human sex trafficking, the elderly, immigrants, nonprofits and others facing legal threats. Whether you volunteer to accept cases, staff clinics, lecture, mentor or participate in an approved project, your support is essential to ensure that Dade Legal Aid - Put Something Back continues to provide access to justice to the neediest members of our society.

Some of the many perks of participating include: free CLE training, malpractice insurance coverage, reduced costs, ongoing support from mentors, plus personal gratification by giving back to our community's less fortunate. Don't delay - please join us in donating your time, talent and resources today! We took an oath to "never reject the cause of the defenseless or oppressed or delay anyone's cause for lucre or malice." Please renew your attorney oath by participating. You may join on line at www.dadelegalaid.org or kindly complete and return the form to:

Remember your oath. Remember the less fortunate. Remember to be the one to make a difference. On behalf of those without a voice, we thank you for your generosity.

Sincerely yours,
